Brac University

The university management has decided to resume office activities on campus according to the following schedule:

- Administrative employees (including Dean, Associate Dean, Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson) should attend office in person from 21 November, 2021
- Academic employees should attend office in person from 09 January, 2022

If you are unable to come to office as per the scheduled date, you are required to seek approval from your line manager.

The university thanks those who have attended offices on campus throughout the pandemic to maintain services and provide support.
