

Md. Monirul Islam, bpm (bar), ppm (bar)
Additional Commissioner of Police
Chief of Counter Terrorism and Transnational Crime (CTTC)
Bangladesh Police
Ministry of Home Affairs

Mr. Monirul Islam was born on 15 June, 1970 in a Muslim family and he joined the police service in 1995 as an Assistant Superintendent of Police. With a vast experience in investigating different types of complicated criminal cases. Within his 22 years' service, he had been in Detective Branch for 9 years, Special Branch in 2 years. Prior to creating the CTTCU in February 2016, Detective branch was responsible for investigating terrorism, cyber and other transnational crime related cases.

Monirul Islam was awarded 'Bangladesh Police Medal' and 'President Police Medal' for five times in recognition of his distinguished service for detective Branch as well as for his tactful media management and the CTTCU. He graduated in British Law from North Umbria University, UK, completed an MA in English, MSS in Criminology and Criminal Justice and PGD in Genocide Studies from Dhaka University. He has been teaching Criminology as a part time teacher (Adjunct Faculty) at the University of Dhaka for last three years.

Mr. Monirul Islam recognized as one of the few counterterrorism experts in Bangladesh. According to that he is often invited to deliver lecture on terrorism and counterterrorism both in national and international counterterrorism training, workshop, seminar and conference. As the spokesperson for Dhaka Metropolitan Police, he has participated in 500+ press briefing and 200+ talk shows on various television channels since last 8 years.